

IPOR releases the latest survey on the two years performance of PTI Government

Institute for Public Opinion Research (IPOR) releases survey on the two year performance of PTI government. The survey report is based on the opinions of 2,024 respondents who were interviewed from August 3-13, 2020. Majority (63%) of the respondents were under the age of 40, in which respondents between the age of 18 and 25 made up 14% of the total and 26-40 were 49% while, those between 41 and 50 made up 22%, and those above 50 were 15% of the total. Error Margin +/-2.18 percent, Confidence Level will be 95 percent for national results.

Following are some of the important findings of this poll.

- 51% of the respondents are satisfied with the performance of PM Imran Khan to contain the spread of COVID-19 pandemic.
- 77% of the people are in favor of government decision for re-opening of schools & colleges.
- 80% said (YES), they will be sending children to school/colleges.
- Majority 54% of the people overall rating bad or very bad performance by the PM Imran Khan during last 2 years.
- Pessimism than optimism on the performance of PTI government as 40% of the respondents predicting that the performance of the government will get worse in next three years.
- 44% are still willing to let the current government complete its 5-year term.
- 28% of the respondents said Shahbaz Sharif can solve the challenges faced by Pakistan.
- The PML-N with 28% support, PTI with 24% & PPP with 11%.