

A Nation-wide Public Opinion Survey on the completion first 100 days of Current PTI Government

As per a nation-wide public opinion survey conducted by Institute for Public Opinion Research (IPOR), shows a much more divided opinion on the first 100 days performance of the government. The survey revealed only 27% of Pakistanis think that PTI government was able to implement its 100-day plan and 23% say they were completely unsuccessful where another 30% say it's too early to comment.

The survey report is based on opinions of 2,041 respondents who were interviewed during November 27 to December 1, 2018. The survey was conducted through Computer Assisted Telephonic Interviews (CATI) with randomly selected phone data-base collected face to face on proportion to population sample (PPS) from the adult residents in all four provinces of Pakistan.

While the overall satisfaction of the voters with PTI government was at 47%, it has received most of the support from KPK province where 51% satisfaction, and least support it received from province of Punjab with 43% support. Looking at the Rural Urban and Gender divide, it has received more support from Urban center and male section of society with each supporting 50% respectively.

When asked about the performance of each of the four Chief Ministers, Sindh Chief Minister Murad Ali Shah received highest 16% favorable rating followed by Punjab' CM Usman Buzdar with only 13%. While other two CMs received further low ratings with 10% for Mehmood Khan of KPK and only 2% for Jam Kamal from Balochistan.

Comparing the performance of present and previous CM in Punjab, when asked who you think is performing well, 45% respondents expressed that Shahbaz Sharif performance was better comparing to Usman Buzdar getting 31% support. At the all Pakistan level again Shanbaz Sharif received 34% better rating than the present CM with 26% satisfaction for his work.

When asked "In Your Opinion what are the really good Steps that has been done by the current PTI government so far?" The top 5 responses were,

- |                                    |     |
|------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Fight Against Corruption        | 17% |
| 2. Construction of Dam             | 11% |
| 3. Operation against encroachments | 10% |
| 4. Policy Reforms                  | 6%  |
| 5. Shelter Home Project            | 3%  |

When asked about the biggest challenges faced to the PTI led government, In your opinion which are the biggest challenges facing the current PTI Government? The Top-5 Challenges as per Pakistanis are;

- |                           |     |
|---------------------------|-----|
| 1. Controlling Price-hike | 22% |
| 2. Eradicating Poverty    | 9%  |
| 3. Ending Unemployment    | 9%  |

4. Controlling Corruption 7%
5. Dealing with IMF Loan 5%

NOTE: Surveys and polls are a good way to judge the larger public opinion and this tool is extensively used in West to get a feel of the subject. The information in this report has been compiled in accordance with international standards for market and social research methodologies. This Survey was conducted by IPOR Consulting from November 27 to December 1, 2018. Sample size 2041, Error Margin +/- 2.16 percent, Confidence Level will be 95 percent. For a complete report please visit IPOR website: www.ipor.com.pk.